Palm Sunday

OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Blessed is the king

who comes in the name of the Lord.

LUKE 19:38

MARCH 20 2016

PASSION

The word "passion" connotes deep, focused engagement. It also relates to passivity, interestingly. The deeply passionate person in the Gospel narrative from Luke is Jesus. He appears passive, but he is not. He is wholly self-possessed and wholly present for the one day that begins on Thursday evening at his last meal with his apostles and ends with his burial before sunset the next day. Then follows the long Sabbath silence.

The narrative of the Passion is read whole and without pause on the Palm Sunday of the Passion. This story, found in each of the Gospels, is unchanging. We are the ones who change. Each year, we bring ourselves with another year's history to hear and heed the story we so badly need. Life has its way with us, and we look again to the Passion narratives to learn to follow. Movie Nite

"We Shall Not Be Moved" (2001), will be shared by Lynne Thorner (friend of Cresa Bent) on Monday, March 28th, at 5:30pm, that will be the day after Easter Sunday. Historic events featured in the film includes: The Montgomery Bus Boycott and Rosa Parks arrest (1955-1956); Little Rock, Arkansas school desegregation of Central High School (1957-1959); Birmingham, Alabama segregation issues and the brutality at Edmund Pettus Bridge (1965); Memphis, Tennessee Garbage Worker's Strike culminating in Martin Luther King, Jr.'s assassination (April 1968)

Lynne Thorner was an English Professor at Broward College in Fort Lauderdale, Florida for "decades". She taught two Humanities electives: African American Literature and Film as Literature. Her enthusiasm for cinema led her to develop a film forum she calls Reel to Real Talk. She facilitated for social groups and others in Florida.

This will be a Potluck, please call Cresa with any questions.
