FORGIVENESS

Nearly ten years before, a son and father had parted ways when the business they shared went bankrupt. The son blamed the father. They did not speak to each other again.

Then the father became seriously ill. The mother called the son and told him he had better come soon. The son walked sheepishly into the hospital room. The father motioned his son to him and whispered: "Did you ever think you could do anything that would keep me from loving you?"

Resentment and anger are foul things, the first reading from Sirach tells us. Remember the last things. Stop hating. Live by the commandments. As Saint Paul writes to the Romans, we are to live for the Lord and die for the Lord. Jesus' parable in today's Gospel reminds us of God's compassion. The immense sin of humanity has been forgiven and stricken from the record. We are to forgive others in the same way.

Today's Good News ~Living with Christ

Each Mass, before receiving the Eucharist, we repeat the words of the Roman centurion in today's Scripture: "Lord...I am not worthy to have you enter under my roof." It is good for us to recall from whence these words come. The centurion was a non-Jew, apparently an unbeliever, an officer in the ruling army that occupied Jerusalem. As a centurion, he commanded a Roman centuria, up to 100 men. He was a leader in the army that put Jesus to death. But it was his act of humility that we recall each Mass. It was his faith in Jesus that our Savior commended and to which we aspire. Jesus himself was "amazed at him." True faith can come from unexpected places. Can we take off our blinders and be open to surprising moments of faith? Perhaps this day, we might even have an opportunity to profess our faith in an unexpected way. MSGR. STEPHEN J. ROSSETTI
