REJOICE

Isaiah proclaims truly good news to us! God's coming brings not sadness, guilt, fear, wrath, or condemnation. No, God's coming is a source of comfort and joy. Saying it once is not enough, for today's readings are full of joy. Mary's Magnificat substitutes for our psalm today, and our second reading encourages us to rejoice, to give thanks and praise. This is the root meaning of the Greek word for eucharist. We are urged to rejoice and give thanks, because the coming of the Lord brings joy, healing, liberty, release, vindication. It makes the very earth spring up with new life! Good tidings!

Today's Good News ~Living with Christ

Joseph retired for the night having made a momentous decision—the wrong decision. He had decided on a course of action that, while humane, was not what God wanted. The angel's command—God's wish—spoke to the desire of Joseph's heart. If God wanted him to be Mary's husband, so be it, If God wanted him to raise the Sod of God, so be it. Joseph would have the home and the family that God wanted him to have. While angels may not be speaking to us in our dreams, God still speaks to our hearts in some fashion, God desires only our good, offering us deep love and care on a daily basis. God wants us to do the right thing not only because it will affect our lives, but because it will affect the lives of others as well. For our part, we need to open our hearts to God's desire for our lives. O Lord, help me to listen well to your word spoken in my heart. JEAN ROYER
