THE LAMB OF GOD

"Behold the Lamb of God!" We hear this phrase every Sunday at Mass, but there's a good chance that many Roman Catholics do not know who in the Bible originally spoke it. The phrase appears only in the Gospel of John, on the lips of John the Baptist, who utters it twice. In today's Gospel reading, John proclaims Jesus as the Lamb of God, and two of John's own disciples then follow Christ. A little bit later Andrew, who heard John and then followed Jesus, brings his brother Simon to be re-named Cephas, or Peter. A careful look at these Bible verses shows us the mission of everyone baptized into the Body of Christ: we must always proclaim our faith in Christ, so that others will follow him. We may not know how the will of God might work through those we bring to Christ; that is not the point. The point is that our ongoing mission as a church is to bring others to Christ, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.

Today's Good News ~Living with Christ

"Give us new life, and we will call upon your name" (Psalm 80:19).

The psalmist's plea for a new life made me reflect on those times I witnessed something being revived. An African violet that was dry and shriveled often came back to life through my mother's tender care. A family dog that lay sick was eventually made well thanks to my father's nursing. And I too, know what it means to be revived—after a long night's sleep, a good meal, a great movie, a moving liturgy, an evening with friends, my personal prayer. Let us reflect on those things that drain us of life, courage, and hope. Then reflect on those things that revive us, encourage us, and give us hope. Next look around and see if there is anyone in your life right now who could use an easy life. But it does assure us that God walks with us the whole way, ever ready to revive us with loving care. Loving God, revive me! And use me to help revive someone in need. SR. MELANNIE SVOBODA, SND
