

SAVE THE DATE

Mark your calendars for Oct. 15th, Nov. 12th and Dec. 3rd at 3:00pm for Listen for Life's "Notes for Nourishment" benefit concert series, which continues monthly, on Sundays. All concerts are hosted by St. Joseph Basilica at 1109 Chestnut Street in Alameda. Renowned artists from all cultures and countries donate their time/talents to perform FREE for these one hour family-friendly concerts. All donations are to benefit nonprofits that nourish the hungry, homeless and hurting of our area. This series was recently voted a "Best Discovery of 2017" finalist in the San Francisco Classical Voice reader's polls!

Upcoming Concerts:

3pm October 15th— KALEIDOSCOPE: a musical smorgasbord of renowned artists, instruments and music selections (Beethoven and Brahms plus 2 Jewish wedding dances, 2 versions of Ave Maria, 3 Yiddish melodies, one tango and a lot of joy!) Donations to Helping Hands East Bay and Mexico quake victims.

3pm Nov 12th— MUSIC FOR VETERANS: Rick Harrell & Heroes' Voices, plus Dulcet Four vocal quartet and more, all doing Americana music from the 20s to the present. Donations to HeroesVoices.org.

3pm Dec, 3rd — REJOICE! REJOICE! Voci Women's Vocal Ensemble & the Jubilate Baroque Orchestra perform their annual concert for the holidays, this time as part of our Notes for Nourishment series.
