120 Year’s of Building the Community”*

Ascension of Our Lord

*“Men of Galilee,
why are you standing there
looking up at the sky?
This Jesus who has been taken up from you
into heaven
will return in the same way
as you have seen him
going into heaven.”*

MISSION STATEMENT

Today we celebrate Christ's ascension into heaven and his commissioning of the disciples to carry on his mission in the world. First we hear Luke's description of those events in the opening verses of the Acts of the Apostles. Next we hear words of encouragement and guidance from the Letter to the Ephesians. Finally we hear Mark's account of the Ascension, foretelling the mighty words and acts the Christian community would do in Jesus' name.

Together these scriptures give us a vision of the mission of the church of Jesus Christ--a mission statement of sorts. Like mission statements in our parishes and corporations, this mission statement can help us set priorities and focus our activities. It can guide and support us as we strive to continue Christ's messianic mission on earth.

Today's Good News ~Living with Christ

"We are of the same nature as you, human beings" (Acts 14:15).

As a teenager I looked up to a number of people. I thought they could do no wrong and that I, as a young person with little experience, was not worthy to be associated with them. As a young adult I learned that my "heroes" were just fallible human beings after all. They lost their temper, had bad habits, and failed just like everyone else. This was a painful lesson, but it helped me grow into a more realistic perspective about people. It can even be a relief to realize that no one is perfect, not even our heroes. The late Bishop Ken Untener said it well: "We are ministers, not messiahs." It is great to look to people for advice and encouragement, but just as Paul and Barnabas tried to convince the people of Lystra, it is not all about us or all about them; it is all about God.
